

Cecil College and University of Baltimore Dual Admission Programs

- University of Baltimore will accept the sixty (60) semester hours of the following limited Associate of Applied Science degrees:
 - A.A.S Accounting
 - A.A.S Criminal Justice Studies
 - A.A.S Computer Science Programing
 - A.A.S Cybersecurity
 - A.A.S Digital Commerce
- Additional general education course work may be needed to satisfy MHEC requirements for a bachelor's degree.
- Cecil College students will transfer to an identified corresponding University of Baltimore program at the time of dual admission with Junior standing up to 63 transferrable credits.